why am I receiving this document?

You have the right to ask us about our charges, the type of advice we will give you, and what you can do if you have a complaint about our services.

This Financial Services Guide (“FSG”) is intended to inform you of certain basic matters relating to our relationship, prior to us providing you with a financial service. The matters covered by the FSG include, who we are, how we can be contracted, what services we are authorised to provide you, how we (and any other relevant parties) are remunerated, details of any potential conflicts of interest, and details of our internal and external dispute resolution procedures and how you can access them.

It is intended that this FSG should assist you in determining whether to use any of our services described below. The distribution of this FSG by its representatives has been authorised by Access Financial Management Pty Ltd. After reading this FSG you should be able to make an informed decision as to whether you wish to use a representative of Access Financial Management Pty Ltd as your financial adviser.

You should also be aware that you are entitled to receive a Statement of Advice whenever we provide you with any advice which takes into account your objectives, financial situation and needs. The Statement of Advice will contain the advice, the basis on which it is given and the information about fees, commissions and associations which may have influenced the provision of advice. If we provide further personal advice a financial plan may not be required. We will keep a record of any further personal advice we provide you for seven years. You may request a copy of such records by contacting our office during that period at no cost.

In the event we make a recommendation to acquire a particular financial product (other than securities) or offer to issue or arrange the issue of a financial product, we must also provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement containing information about the particular product which will enable you to make an informed decision in relation to the acquisition of that product.

before you get our advice

Lack of independence

Because Access Financial Management Pty Ltd receives commissions from the issuers of life insurance products, the licensee is not independent, impartial or unbiased. The Corporations Act states that if a licensee or an adviser receives commissions from a product issuer they cannot claim to be independent, impartial or unbiased.

who is my adviser?

Your adviser will be a salaried employee adviser of Access Financial Management. All advisers are qualified and appropriately experienced.

what kind of financial services are you authorised to provide me and what kind of products do those services relate to?

Access Financial Management is licensed to provide advice on, and deal in managed funds, shares, superannuation, retirement savings accounts, bank deposits, government stocks debentures or bonds, and life insurance products. We also offer an annual review service.

who do you act for when you provide financial services to me?

Access Financial Management Pty Ltd is responsible for the financial services provided to you including the distribution of the Financial Services Guide. As an employee of Access Financial Management, your adviser has no obligations or commitment to any product provider. Their first duty is to represent you, the client.

how will I pay for the service?

Access Financial Management will charge you a fee for services provided as detailed below:

initial fee (plan preparation)	This fee provides for the necessary time, research and analysis to develop the strategies and recommendations contained in your Statement of Advice. The initial fee will vary in a range from $0 - $11,000, depending on the complexity of advice required. You will be advised of an estimated fee prior to any work being carried out.
ongoing advice fees	Our ongoing advice fee ensures that your plan incorporates the latest legislative changes and that your plan evolves with the inevitable changes in your lifestyle and goals. You will also receive ongoing administrative support with the implementation of your strategies, ongoing advice and administration. Ongoing advice fees may range between $0 - $5,000 per month for the provision of ongoing advice and services that we will provide. The fee is dependent on the complexity of advice and service levels required. Your financial planner will detail the ongoing fee payable once a summary of your requirements is known and how those fees will be deducted.
commissions	Access Financial Management will not receive commissions because of investments you make in investment products our advisers may recommend to you. We may receive commissions directly from insurance companies when you take out an insurance policy we recommend. The initial commission paid to us is a maximum of 66% of the initial premium. We also receive an ongoing commission payment each year for as long as you continue to hold the policy. This ongoing commission is a maximum of 27.5% of the ongoing premium amount. For example, if your insurance premium is $1,000, we may receive up to $660 from the insurer as an initial commission and up to $275 pa as an ongoing commission.

All or any of these if applicable to you will be fully disclosed in percentage and dollar terms in your Statement of Advice. All Access Financial Management advisers are salaried employees and are not paid any commissions or bonuses that are related to the products they recommend.

conflicts of interest register

Access Financial Management maintains a register, which outlines any conflicts of interest of alternative forms of remuneration. This register provides information on any conflicts or potential conflicts of interest, which may impact upon product recommendations made to you. Any conflicts of interest specific to your situation will be included in our advice to you.

Registers are publicly available and can be accessed by request.
